Mayo Branch to Move Into the Kinney Brothers' Building.

HIGH OFFICIALS ARE HERE

They Came From New York to Look the Situation

Over. of powerful personages of the American Tobacco Company, visited Richmond, Messrs, Charles E. Hallewile, R. B. Dula, C. M. Strotz and T. J. Mallory made up this committee, who came down from New York to determine definitely on the location of the P. H. Mayo branch of the nerican Tobacco Company. its present location on Cary and of Twenty-sixth and Cary Streets, as the Kinney Brothers' factory, immense building will be thor-remodeled and will then be occu-oughly remodeled and will then be occupied by the Mayo branch affording not only additional factory space, but up-to-date shipping facilities; the tracks of the Southern Railway running to the very doors of the factory.

The American Tobacco Company owns a number of warehouses in the locality of the Kinney Brothers' factory, and these warehouses will be used by the Mayo branch. The old factory of the branch had become far too small for the business, besides being old-fashloned and out of the way of shipping facilities.

Make Alterations. Make Alterations.

Make Alterations.

Not until the coming summer will the move be made, for it has been found that many changes will have to be effected before the Kinney Brothers' factory will be ready for occupancy. The work of improvement will be done by the Mankin Construction Company, who are also building fourteen great warehouses for the American Tohacco Company at the head of Clay Street.

These warehouses are being constructed as pear fireproof as possible, having concrete floor; and walls of extraordinary thickness. The builders contend that should fire break out in one of the warehouses, it could not possibly spread to the next, because of the "flare" walls acting as a fire guard, that extends beyond each building.

The general concensus of opinion was that the Northside district was opposed to annexation.

New members were elected as follows: W. S. Lockett, J. B. Sealman, W. R. Fritzseln, W. C. Drumwight, Charles Neisz, G. W. Baker, Taylor and Dr. Wingfield.

HAD GOOD SALES.

Farmers Plodded Through Snow and Sleet to Bring Their Tobacco and Sleet to Bring Their Tobacco
The snow covered and frozen roads did not deter a number of farmers from hauling tobacco to the Richmond murket yesterday, and contrary to expectation there was a fairly large saie. The four houses combined soid nearly 135,000 pounds, according to approximate estimates made yesterday. Besides the wagon tobacco there was considerable railroad tobacco accumulated, and the two combined made a very fair sale.
Shelburne's and Stonewall each soid nearly 40,000 pounds yesterday, Sheckoe about 35,000 and Crenshaw's about 20,000.
Prices for the grades offered were generally very satisfactory, showing that there has been no appreciable siump in vilues.

Bowling Tournament.

The Crystal alleys were packed last night with interested spectators to see the game between the Hanover and Crystal teams. These two clubs are the leading teams in the Virginia State League, and never fail to draw a large crowd.

The Hanovers defeated the Crystals by the score of two to one. The only feature was the rolling of Kolbe, who has proven to be a wonder.

There will be a match game this week between Whitman and Williams and two other famous bowlers for the championship of Virginia. Andrew Ginter and Fred Herbert will challenge the winners for a game.

Both Declined.

It may be stated that in naning the assessors of city real estate for 1965 Judge Witt offered to reappoint Messrs. A. Y. Stokes, Jr., and W. B. Newell, who had served for ten years, but both declined. Judge Witt complimented both these gentiemen in naming their successors.

Smokes 'Em Again.

Mayor McCarthy renewed his coal grate fire in his office again yesterday, and the smoke ascended and descended in great volumes to the offices below. Justice Crutchfield, who forbids all persons to smoke near him, took refuge in the court-room and remained there for some time.

New Lease on Mammoth Store. The property committee of the Grand Lodge of Masons of Virginia has completed arrangements with Messrs. Ryan, Smith and Talman, who conduct an extensive furniture business, by which that firm will have possession of the large store in the Masonle Temple for a period of one year from April 1, 1995. The firm has also the privilege of renewing the lease for three years.

"If we are not in our new building by the end of another year I shall be very much disappointed," said Secretary S. L. Thomas, of the Railroad Young Men's ing of the prospective forty thousand dollie.

The Railroad Y, M. C. A. is now in the very start of a campaign for a fund with which to purchase a ten thousand dollar site and build thereon a thirty thousand building as a home. About eighteen thousand dollars of the desired fund has been subscribed and $12,500 more is in immediate prospect. The remaining ten thousand is to be raised from the eight hundred odd members of the association and their friends, and both these classes are constantly growing numerically. It is expected that individuals will contribute a large proportion of that sum in large lumps.

The movement for a new building for the association, began less than a year ago at a meeting led by Mr. Thomas, at which President George W. Stevens of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, and other railway officials and employes were present Mr. Stevens gave the project its initial impetus, and with characteristic zeal and determination he is still pushing it along in the most substantial manner, with the co-operation, of course, of the other Chesapeake and Ohio officials and directors. At that time the membership was about six hundred. Mr. Thomas was encouraging the workers to push, or eight hundred members. After the meeting Mr. Stevens quietly assured Mr. Thomas that when the eight hundred mark was reached in membership he would help to secure a home for the association.

After a few months Mr. Stevens was reminded of his promise, with the result that he met the committee that visited him frankly and cordially, and assured them he was ready to do what he could to secure the co-operation of the Chescheake and Ohio Raliway and the other local lines to push the project. A financial plan was soon outlined, and an intelligent empairs was beruin. It was cial plan was soon outlined, and an in-telligent campaign was begun. It was decided that ten thousand dollars should be had for a suitable site; that a build-ing to cost not less than $25,000 should be constructed, and that $5,000 would be necessary to equip it for its work. Then came the ways and means of rais-ing the forty thousand. The Chesapeuke and Ohio officials, under the leadership of Mr Stevens, pledged that company to of Mr. Stevens, pledged that company contribute $15,000, conditioned upon raising of the entire $40,000. The Sou contribute $15.000, conditioned upon the raising of the entire $40,000. The Southern Railway, through a letter from Vice-President W. W. Finley, has agreed to contribute $2,500. The matter of contributing $5,000 to this, building fund is now before the board of directors of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railway. The officials of the Seaboard Altime and the Atlantic Coast Line Railway have been asked to name a date for a conference with the Railway Y. M. C. A committee to discuss the matter of making contributions to this movement. The Seaboard is expected to contribute $5,000, and the Coast line $2,000.

If these expectations be realized, thirty thousand dollars will have been raised, conditioned on the ability of the members of the association and their friends to contribute the remaining $10,000. No serious difficulty is anticipated in securing this sum. In fact, a number of persons have already significant a will-

to Fill Stockings Poor Children.

The Church Hill Santa Claus Club held an interesting meeting on Saturday night, and indications point to the ability of this organized effort in behalf of the suffering children at Christmas time to do great good. Of course, the measure of success will be commensurate with the responsiveness of the people to the club's appeal for contributions and donations. Many send money, whilet goes into the treasury, to be turned over to the purchasing committee. Others promise donations of clothing, groceries, toys and fruits.

An "Empty Stocking Club," for the benefit of a more general territory than Church Hill, has been organized, and while the original club would not in any wise impede the progress of this or any other work for the poor, the Church Hill Santa Claus Club naturally feels that donations for their territory should come through that channel, as formerly. These are the sentiments expressed yesterday afternoon by Mr. W. M. Bickers, president of the club, who further said that a proposition was made on Saturday to merge the Church Hill Club Into the "Empty Stocking Club," which was courteausly declined, on the grounds that the club had been at work for some time and had solicited and received contributions for Church Hill beneficiaries, and it would not therefore be consistent to merge at this time.

The officers of the club are W. M. Bickers, president: J. M. Binford, vice-president: W. D. Gay, treasurer; Julius Jones, secretary. Those destring to contributions for the two why they will be receipted for. The purchasing committee will make as judicious purchases as possible.

Question of Duty Involved as to Sidewalks Around the Capitol Square.

There is but one thoroughfare in Richaway, but where pedestrians must depend upon the return of sunshine to melt it. That is along the sidewalks around the of Ninth Street, along the Capitol Square capitol Square. And yet the east side of Ninth Street, along the Capitol Square, is one of the most popular walking streets in the city.

Again, while a popular thoroughfare, it is one of the most dangerous hills in the city in times of snow or sleet. The question of why the snow is never cleared away from the sidewalks around the Capitol Square has been much discussed by citizens recently, but the explanation probably is that there is no clearly defined-idea as to whose duty it is to have this work done. The matter has frequently been agitated heretofore, and according to the recollection of several gentlemen it was determind that it was State property, and therefore the duty of keeping the sidewalk in order fell upon the Register of the Land Office, who is also the keeper of buildings and grounds. These walks around the Square are the only ones in the city running along either private or pubble property which are not required to be cleaned off promptly. The coasting down Ninth Street often so packs the snow that it remains there for weeks at a time.

The men listened afterwards to Evangelist C. H. Gootee, of Preston.
